Enable a Vacation Responder (Out of Office Message)
Stephanie Obodda - 2019-05-12 - 0 Comments - in Email

If you'll be away from email, you can update your Vacation Responder setting so people who email you automatically receive a response. You can even set it up ahead of time with the date range of your vacation!

For step-by-step instructions, see the Google Support Article: Automatically reply when out of office or on vacation.
