

Learn About Upcoming Changes in Google Apps

Stephanie Obodda - 2024-04-26 - Comments (0) - Google Apps

Google's products are updated regularly, which we think is a great thing - but it can also be daunting when features appear overnight. If you'd like to stay informed on upcoming changes to Google's products, we recommend the following links.

When using these resources, note that Brown's Google domain is on the "Scheduled" release track. This gives us more time to learn about changes before they appear in our domain.
